

To whom it may concern? This thing we call xm radio has been the best revolution in radio listening in as long as i have been listening to radio, which is about 30 years now and ever since i recieved xm in christmas i do not listen to local radio because all it is, is commercials and im tired of b.eing told what to buy and when to buy when all i want is music ,wheather and news